Von HOSTITZ (Re: NSA-1509 dated 20 March 1950.)

IX-1116 dated 26 August 1944.

Von HOSTITZ is a staff member of the German Embassy in Paris, France and a friend of de MIKOFF.

IX-45 dated 29 January 1945.

Included in list of German officials in Switzerland who have defected is Gottfried von HOSTITZ, Avenue de Chambé 28, Geneva. Von HOSTITZ is the German Consul at Geneva and he was born on 19 August 1902. He has refused to return to Germany, but he has not been deprived of his official position.

IX-87 dated 15 February 1944.

Siegfried von HOSTITZ, Counsellor at the German Legation, Berne was reported by a reliable source in May 1943 as a member of the Abwehr. He deals with the issuance of visas and facilitated the journey of persons in whom the Abwehr is interested. Both he and his wife are Roman Catholics and take an active part in the life of the Diplomatic Corps. He is described as having a very charming personality. In 1941, he resided at Muristalden 15, Berne.

Memo for General Magruder from Lt. Col. Roger Pfaff, X-2, dated 6 Jan 45.
20087 (X-2 - 28 - 476).

Siegfried von HOSTITZ, Counsellor of the German Legation, Berne, resides at 16 Muristalden; Roman Catholic, socially active. Reported to be a member of the Abwehr who makes necessary travel arrangements for persons in whom the Abwehr is interested. Information from Berne suggests that Von HOSTITZ is the man to whom Von KESSLER referred when he suggested that Germany initiate plans for a separate peace on the Western Front, but in view of the other peace making activities of Von KESSLER, it may be that Von KESSLER intended to get in touch with Von HOSTITZ.

Bruce Lockhart believed Die Bruderschaft was tied to ODEH through Graf HOFFZE-WALLWEZ and Freiherr WESTHEIM. KURT ERHOLICH went to Hamburg ostensibly to make contact with Count Eberhard von HOFFZE, allegedly in the employ of the British Intelligence and connected with the Deutsche Vacuum Co. A.G. in Norberg. ODEH stated that Count HOFFZE is a co-worker of General Agency "Q" and that he will be dropped in the near future because he became known to the British in Hamburg.
